First photo taken Sept. 25, 2004 Block Island RI

While vacationing in 2004, we met a guy named Tom that worked at the local coffee shop. Sam was wearing a t-shirt I had made for her. Tom liked it and wanted to know if we had any others. At that point, I was just making shirts for Sam and me, so we only had the shirts we had packed to wear. We brought in everything in our wardrobe, both dirty and clean. He bought a shirt out of our dirty laundry, and we had made our first sale.

Interstate is 5 years old now and very different from when we started. Hopefully we will continue to grow and continue to get better and better.

Thanks Tom for buying that first shirt back in 2004, and thank you to everyone that has bought one since. It is because of you that we are here.
